If you are interested in seeking assistance, then please note:

- Eligibility and benefits for these programs are primarily determined by the gross household income (total income of the household before deductions), number of household members, and the emergency or need of the situation.
- Documentation needed for the application includes but is not limited to:
  - Current Driver's License or SC Identification card from the SC Department of Motor Vehicles, only for applicant (please note address on ID must match current residence)
  - Legible social security cards for all household members

SCDMH Community Resources Greenwood Area

- Proof of gross household income for the past 30 days (from date of application)
- Proof of need or emergency, which may include your most recent utility bill, a disconnect notice (if received one), an eviction notice, or any other form of documentation that shows the need for assistance
- Receipt for any unallowable amounts that cannot be paid by the agency
- Any further information needed will be communicated to applicant at the time appointment is given. Program guidelines are subject to change.
