A Preparedness Panel for the 2025 Hurricane Season

Moderated by: John Williams | SCHA

Charlene Bell | SC Department of Public Health

Ernie Moore | SC Department of Public Health

Henry Lewis | SC EMS Association

Hurricane preparedness and an all-hazards approach remain a top priority for all healthcare providers and emergency response state agencies. As we enter the 2025 hurricane season, panelists will share updates related to state planning processes, patient evacuation processes, coordination with EMS for transportation, etc.

10:15- 11:00a

Simulated Response Training: De-escalation Techniques

Moderated by: Melanie Matney | SCHA

Lucy Easler | Prisma Health

Joe Browning | Prisma Health

Highly interactive session from the Prisma Health team on their strategy of using simulation and standardized patients to train staff on how to respond to aggressive or violent patients or visitors.

Stretch Break

11:30-12:15p

Analysis of Security Practices in SC & Response Panel

Moderated by: John Williams | SCHA

Justin McClarrie | Lexington Medical Center

Todd O'Quinn | AnMed

In partnership with the SC Chapter of the International Association for Healthcare Security & Safety, SCHA recently distributed a survey of current security practices in SC healthcare facilities. This discussion will provide a summary of the results, and a response panel focused on top issues of concern for healthcare security professionals.

12:15-1p

Networking Lunch

1-2:00p

Workplace Violence Collaborative: Second Annual Data Report

Beth Morgan | SCHA

Tamara Rodriguez | Antum Risk

In late 2023, SCHA and Antum Risk partnered together to launch the Workplace Violence Data Collaborative, the only voluntary collaborative of its kind. Through this partnership, we've captured data from hospitals across the state and can now reveal the results of the second annual data report.

2-2:30p

Open Forum for Interactive Discussions

Moderated by: John Williams | SCHA

Jennifer Biggers | Piedmont Medical Center

Mike Puckett | McLeod Health

Based on topics surfaced during today's discussion or topics submitted in advance, the closing session will provide the opportunity for interactive discussions with security, operations, and emergency preparedness colleagues.
